Cottrell Park Builds Foundations to New Partnership with Redrow Homes South Wales

Redrow Homes South Wales has recently become principal corporate sponsor of Cottrell Park Golf Resort's Button Gwinnett course.

The two-year sponsorship has seen Redrow Homes, South Wales invest in the first-class golf, event and activity destination in a bid to provide both staff and customer benefits at a prestigious, local venue.

Based in 400-acres of parkland ten minutes outside of Cardiff City Centre, Cottrell Park Golf Resort has exclusively branded across their Button Gwinnett course with Tee Signs and Flags.

Redrow Homes South Wales customers will benefit from a free months full membership trial plus a year's social membership and other exclusive stakeholder offers.

In addition, the venue will act as a backdrop for staff meetings and training events held in the resorts various suites including its 480m² luxury marquee.

Regional Director of Redrow Homes South Wales. Tim Stone said: "Redrow Homes South Wales is proud to be creating great places and delivering quality homes across South Wales and the corporate sponsorship of Cottrell Park Golf Resort gives us the opportunity to use the excellent golf and club house facilities for meeting and training days, while also allowing us to offer great benefits for new Redrow customers"

Cottrell Park Golf Resort sales director, Gaynor Openshaw-Smith, added: "Our offering for the corporate market continues to grow as we diversify; we now offer an array of corporate and advertising packages as well as meeting rooms and a versatile marquee facility. With two golf courses for business development and retention and team-building and training activities for staff; the resort is well equipped to maximise business potential."

"We welcome Redrow Homes South Wales on board as our Button Gwinnett corporate sponsor and look forward to delivering on their specific sponsorship objectives. Our stunning backdrop is the perfect fit for promoting their exquisite new build developments in the area."

Redrow Homes have a wide range of wonderful houses to suit all tastes, budgets and lifestyles with 2 bedroom properties up to 4 bedroom family homes. All have one thing in common..... the Redrow touch of quality.

Opened in 1996, Cottrell Park Golf Resort boasts two exceptionally-maintained golf courses, event and conferencing facilities, plus indoor and outdoor activities including raft-building, archery, laser shooting and golf simulators.
